RESOLVED the Town of Hamburg Department of Youth, Recreation & Senior Services is recommending the following adjustments for program and facility fees for 2018. Both the Recreation Advisory board and the Senior Services Advisory Boards had input into these recommended changes:

1. Adult Golf Lessons-recommend $5 increase for the program. This would raise fee from $30 to $35 for residents and from $35 to $40 for neighbors.
2. Taylor Road Cabin Rental-recommend $25 increase for weekend rentals. This would raise the cost from $275 to $300 for residents and from $325 to $350 for neighbors. Also recommend a $50 decrease for weekday rentals during traditionally slow months (Oct, Nov, Jan, Feb, Mar, Apr.) This would lower the cost from $175 to $125 for residents and from $225 to $150 for neighbors.

3. Winter Break Open Gym Program-recommended $2 increase (per day) for the program. This would raise the fee from $8 to $10 for residents and from $10 to $12 for neighbors.

Business from the Floor

Bob Reynolds questions what account the money came out of in regards to resolution #21 where the Safety Coordinator is paid $19,000 and the former guy was paid $11,187.

Supervisor Shaw responds that the Town Board discussed it as a whole and he will refer to Ms. Farrell as it is a cost savings measure.

Councilman Farrell responds that the way it was outlined in the budget was that it would be $10,000 for the Health and Safety and $10,000 for the Traffic Safety, so it ends up being a total of $20,000 which is actually a savings.

Samantha Tarczynski, Director of Administration and Finance states in the 2018 budget they took both of those positions which there was a pay disparity and in the budget each of those positions was included for $11,187, so instead of paying for the two positions we are paying one person $19,000.

Dennis Chapman questions item #39 if the people that were added to the Veteran's Committee are veterans.

Councilman Farrell responds they are veterans.

Dennis Chapman states to Councilman Petrie regarding item #44 that in the motion to change the chairman for the Zoning Board that you cannot bring up another name.

Councilman Petrie just wanted to clarify his vote.

Dennis Chapman states regarding item #15 he has no problem with Mr. Giglio getting that position, but he feels that due to the salary change it should have been tabled tonight or it should have been on the agenda to begin with.

Supervisor Shaw responds that the bottom line is we are saving over $3,000.

Joe Killian states that he has been on the bike trail committee for several years. He asks that the Town Board not approve the project until the strip is put back in to keep the Hoover Road and Woodlawn Beach bike trails together.

Don Wiess states that regarding the plaza next to Walmart, the approval was given with the agreement that Benderson Development was required to put a turning lane in. He states he does not want a turn lane there, but a red light. He thanks Mr. Petrie for being transparent.

Lyn Geyer-Braun states that regarding item #45 that many of the members are inactive members. She asks how she can get ahold of the two new members.

Supervisor Shaw responds that the two people selected are keen to get on the committee and willing to work. He states that reports from the Town Board and Department Heads will be conveyed at the regular Town Board Meeting.
